

Revolving Loan Grants create sustainable access to financial services for poor and low-income individuals. Due to their complex nature, The Rotary Foundation (TRF) requires detailed information on the loans and how they are organized. As revolving loans can continue indefinitely, TRF will consider the grant completed and ready for closure if one cycle has been loaned out, repaid and loaned out for another cycle.

There are two sections of the Report Supplement for Revolving Loan Grants that should be attached to the grant report form.

- 1) Cumulative Summary of Credit Groups-Complete the table below to provide a cumulative summary of the total number of individual credit groups. This will provide an overview of all of the credit groups.
- 2) Individual Credit Group Report –Complete the information on the following page for each credit group. Make copies of the Individual Credit Group Report as necessary.
