Rotary Centres for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution

University of Bradford, Bradford, West Yorkshire, England

Saturday 1 November 2003

INVITATION

RI President Jonathan Majiyagbe invites you to celebrate the promise and progress of the first class of participants in the Rotary Centres for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution who are working toward...

Mediation, conflict resolution, and peace where there is war, understanding where there is disharmony,
food security where there is hunger,
health care where there is disease,
education where there is illiteracy,
conservation where there is environmental degradation, sustainable economic development where there is poverty.

Share the vision at this one-day event. Meet the scholars, listen to an example of peace and conflict mediation, and give your views in the discussion session. Learn at first hand of this exciting programme of The Rotary Foundation.

Programme Objectives

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International has established the Rotary Centres for International Studies:

- to advance research, teaching, publication, and knowledge of peace and goodwill, causes of conflict, and world understanding;
- to provide advanced educational opportunities for a group of Rotary World Peace Scholars chosen from various countries and cultures in order to advance knowledge and world understanding among potential future leaders of government, business, media, and other professions;
- to establish a programme through which The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International and the member clubs of Rotary International may become increasingly effective in promoting greater tolerance and cooperation among peoples, leading to world peace and understanding
