

Membership Minute

"If we show [potential members] some of our international and local projects, we can help them understand the powerful things our clubs are doing across the world."

— Renee Moe, Rotary Club of Madison, Wisconsin, USA

RI president makes membership a priority

It's every Rotarian's responsibility to boost club membership and ensure the future of Rotary. No member takes this duty more seriously than RI President Kalyan Banerjee.

Using social media to promote Rotary

Rotary recently conducted a social media webinar series to help Rotarians use social media to promote their club's good works.

The webinars provided step-by-step instructions for setting up a club Facebook page and Twitter account. Experienced Rotarians from around the world led the sessions, sharing best practices and easy steps for customizing pages and accounts, including when and how to use hashtags.

The public is aware of Rotary, but unsure of what we do

Did you know that talking about your involvement in Rotary could enhance the organization's image and boost public awareness? It's up to every Rotarian to tell the world what Rotary is and does.

According to a public image survey commissioned by Rotary International in 2010, people are much more likely to know about Rotary and perceive it positively as a charitable organization if they personally know a Rotarian. The finding is just one of many that could shape how clubs and districts promote Rotary in their communities.
