Salt Lake City convention sessions

Club Leadership Plan

Take your club to the next level at the RI Convention! Learn how the Club Leadership Plan can reinvigorate your club during this workshop, offered on Monday, 18 June, 15:30-17:00. There will be simultaneous interpretation in French and Spanish.

Developing Club Leaders

Encourage club members to Lead the Way with tips from this presentation, slated for Wednesday, 20 June, 13:30-15:00. Explore ways to enhance Rotarians' personal growth and improve their leadership skills so they can better serve their communities, families, and businesses.

Training Best Practices Database

Do you have a training technique that other Rotary clubs and districts might find useful? Submit it to the Training Best Practices Database \(EN Only\) using the entry form (EN only). Through the database, trainers can share their success stories and search for ideas by audience, such as a club or district, or type of training, such as Rotary information or membership development.

Forward Training Talk

Is someone succeeding you in the upcoming Rotary year? If so, introduce the new trainer to Rotary Training Talk, which will provide them with up-to-date RI and training information, as well as helpful training tips. Use the Forward E-mail link below to send this newsletter to a new trainer or another Rotarian.

Training Tip

When preparing PowerPoint slides for a training session, keep these guidelines in mind:

- Use slides to emphasize important points.
- Keep text concise (in general, no more than six to eight lines per slide).
- Proofread your slides for typographical errors and inconsistencies.
- Minimize animation, which can distract participants from the topic.
