

THE ROTARY FOUNDATION DONOR ADVISED FUND

Create a charitable giving account within The Rotary Foundation. A Donor Advised Fund (DAF) account lets you make tax-deductible contributions today and recommend grants to The Rotary Foundation and other favorite charities at your convenience.*

Grants made in your name and the name of The Rotary Foundation show your support for Rotary and remind others of the many ways Rotary is doing good in the world.

HOW IT WORKS

- 1 Give a gift. Make a tax-deductible contribution to The Rotary Foundation.
- Let it grow. Advise the Foundation how to invest account funds in one (or more) of four investment portfolios, potentially increasing the charitable dollars available for grants, tax-free.
- Make a difference. Recommend grants to any IRS-approved charity of your choice, and support Rotary's work through a yearly transfer to the Foundation's Annual Fund.

KEY BENEFITS

- Maximize tax deductions in years when they are most beneficial.
- Avoid capital gains tax on gifts of appreciated stock.
- Contribute complex gifts such as privately held stock, mutual fund shares, and retirement plan assets.
- Leave a legacy to Rotary without updating your will or estate plan.
- Recommend grants anonymously.

INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP ACCOUNTS

- $10,000 minimum to open an account
- Additional contributions of $1,000 or more
- Assets accepted: cash, stock (including publicly traded and closely held shares), bonds, and mutual fund shares
- $250 minimum grant amount
- Recipient may be any IRS-approved charity
- Unlimited number of grants allowed annually
